

Legacy Fine Casual Furniture to Make Their Debut in High Point

Thursday, September 02, 2010

Legacy Fine Casual Furniture announced that it will celebrate the grand opening of their new permanent High Point showroom at the upcoming fall market. The 200 Steele Building Suite #140 locations will become home for Legacy Fine Casual Furniture.

"We are making a tremendous investment to participate in the High Point Furniture Market," said Gary Parrott, Vice President Sales and Marketing. "The market is very critical to our overall selling strategy. We are committed to be there in a dynamic way."

"The 200 Steele building is home to many companies that cater extensively to the Trade. Our product styling, and programs are fashioned with many options that designers relish," stated Gary. "Our design team spent numerous hours to create products of high integrity."

Legacy Fine Casual Furniture, a relatively new company in the industry, manufactures eight designs with over 160 items to be featured in both the interior showroom and on the 6,000 sq. ft. terrace with one terrace entry located at the showroom front entrance.

Visitors are encouraged to stop by during the upcoming High Point International Home Furniture market, October 16th - October 21st. The company is represented by over 16 national independent representatives; to make an appointment please contact 877-257-5550 ext. 1 or send an email to gary@legacyfinecasualfurniture.com

About Legacy Fine Casual Furniture: Legacy Fine Casual Furniture presents timeless collections of casual furnishings whose elegant designs are selected for either exterior or interior spaces. Developed for both residential and contract use, products may be purchased through one of our interior design or furniture showroom partners located throughout the United States. To learn more about the company, please visit www.legacyfinecasualfurniture.com or send an email to info@legacyfinecasualfurniture.com