

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

It's not just furniture... it's a Legacy!

June 22, 2009, Ft. Myers, FL - Newly formed Legacy Fine Casual Furniture announces its entry into the marketplace. Created for both residential and contract use, Gary Parrott, V.P Sales and Marketing states, "Our development team is very pleased about the furniture styles and programs that have been fashioned for the upper end marketplace. Our concept is built around the consumer's and contract user's choice of the many custom design features that are available."

Legacy Fine Casual Furniture is manufactured by Ferro Arte de Mexico, a leading producer of wrought aluminum and iron furniture for over 17 years. Parrott shares, "The overall expertise evolving around Ferro Arte de Mexico's manufacturing capabilities, combined with our sales and marketing plan has created a wonderful opportunity for our company and our future customers."

Legacy's wrought aluminum furniture is available in 19 finishes, offers a wide array of fabrics, custom trims, and stone table tops that by design identify with fine casual outdoor / indoor furnishings. Products will be distributed through interior design partners, contract specifiers, trade showrooms, and furniture stores located throughout the United States.

Sales and Marketing offices are located in Ft. Myers, Florida. The company may be contacted at 877-257-5550 or through the company website www.legacyfinecasualfurniture.com
